The Potter in Action—Teaching & Learning at UoM

Museums for teaching, learning, and social inclusion

Dr Heather Gaunt, Curator of Academic Programs (Research) at the Ian Potter Museum of Art will give a lunchtime talk on the role the university’s art museum plays in teaching and learning in tertiary contexts across all disciplines. The session will focus on the emerging field of museums, well-being and social inclusion. Heather will discuss her current contributions to the new online Master of Ageing, and the ways in which the arts and museum environments can play a role in addressing the challenges of an ageing population.

A short guided walk-through of the current major exhibition ‘My Learned Object: Collections and Curiosities’ is included.

Date: February 12th
Time & Location: 12:15 for 12:30 pm, Ian Potter Museum of Art, Ground Floor Foyer
Lunch and tour: $10 members $15 non-members
Talk & Tour only: $5 members $8 non-members
Bookings: http://www.trybooking.com/KFEU

Upcoming Events: February 27th, Sat 2 pm, MTC Ladies in Black
April, Cuban Salsa Dancing returns
http://awcum.unimelb.edu.au/events
www.facebook.com/AWCUM/